Advertisement.—According to the U. S. Census of 1890, Oklahoma had 61,000 population. Since then over 10,000,000 acres of public domain have been added to it and settled with a progressive people. The Territorial Census just completed gives Oklahoma 287,520 people. The U. S. Census of 1890 showed Guthrie in four sub divisions, giving the four towns about 6,000 population. The four towns have since been consolidated, and the Territorial Census just taken shows Guthrie has 12,151 population. This is the capital and trade center of Oklahoma. The great state papers of all this Territory are the daily and weekly OKLAHOMA STATE CAPITAL. No other daily in the Territory approaches one-third of the circulation of the daily STATE CAPITAL, and no other weekly paper has one-fourth the circulation of the weekly STATE CAPITAL. The passage by the last Legislature of Oklahoma of a bill making the OKLAHOMA STATE CAPITAL the official paper, and the State Capital Printing Company the public printer of Oklahoma, attests the high standing of this paper with the people. The STATE CAPITAL was founded on April 22, 1889, the day on which Oklahoma was opened to settlement, and it has the undisputed distinction of being the first paper published in Oklahoma. It is set by three duplex linotype machines, purchased at a cost of $11,000, and is run on a latest improved perfecting press.

EVERY MAN TO HIS TRADE.

The successful tradesman thrives on advertising. He should not be expected to know how to buy and sell goods, and make ads equally well. Therefore he employs an ad-maker.

Printers' Ink Is An Ad-Maker

On a large scale. It embraces all reputable trades. Merchants will do well to subscribe for it, for aid in their advertising business.

It is full of bright, catchy ads, and inspires new ideas in the field of advertising—ideas from the brains of experienced and successful ad-makers. You consult medical works for authority on medicine, law-books for authority on law—why not an Advertising Journal for authority on advertising? Such consultation costs you nothing, provided you send for a sample copy. It will result in your subscription for a year. Only $5.00 a year for advice beyond value.

PRINTERS' INK,
10 Spruce Street, New York.

WRITING DESIGNING and PRINTING

I HAVE the facilities to print anything from a half-inch ad to the most artistic book one can conceive of.

Nowhere else can it be done as well.

No one else can offer you the experience, knowledge and ideas that I have accumulated during the time I have spent in this business. No one else can offer you the same amount of time spent right in the very heart of the best section in the advertising world. I can be of benefit to you.

In addition to my regular printing line I carry on a writing and designing business.

I have for years supplied a select list of large firms with all the advertising writing they use in their business to their complete satisfaction.

Write me for any information you may want about advertisements, booklets, circulars, etc. I offer you the results of years of practical experience. Can you use my services?

A certain department store recently took an entire page in a number of afternoon papers. This advertisement contained only one item, which was boys' suits to sell at a price of less than $5. I understand that the advertisement cost the house over $1,000, and I believe it took a good deal of grit on the part of this store to put that much money into an advertisement of only one single item, and that one upon which they had no opportunity to make more than a few cents on each sale. The greater part of the advertisement consisted of a picture of the boys' suit. The description was in large type and the advertisement was really sensational from its size. I believe that this fact had a great deal to do with the success of the advertisement, and I do not believe that half a page or a quarter of a page would have produced half or quarter of the results that were produced by the page. The boldness of the idea is in itself attractive and commands attention. My correspondent informed me that the advertisement brought a wonderful response, and that if the firm had had on hand double the number of suits that they did have, they could have easily sold them. Before the day was nearly over the entire stock was exhausted, and the profit on the sale itself more than paid for the advertising, without considering the fact that the boys' clothing department of this firm had been indelibly stamped upon the minds of the public generally through the mere size of the one advertisement.—Chas. F. Jones, in Printers' Ink.

Bottomley & Beling, 15 Jay Street, New York, extensive Importers and Packers of Teas, unhesitatingly state that it has paid them to advertise in THE CARBONDALE LEADER.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25th, 1897.

Publisher "LEADER," Carbondale, Pa.

Dear Sir:—Referring to the advertisements of our India and Ceylon Teas, which we placed in a large number of papers three months ago, through the Lyman D. Morse Agency, I have pleasure in saying that the "Carbondale Leader" is one of the few Pennsylvania papers from which we have had direct results plainly traceable to our advertisements. The result is we shall remain in your paper, and will instruct the Morse Agency to renew our contract with you, and shall probably take additional space.

Yours truly,

L. BELING, for Bottomley & Beling.

Advertisers will notice that the "LEADER" is the only paper in Carbondale rated in the American Newspaper Directory at exceeding 1,000 copies.

TELLING SECRETS

Mr. A. W. Peterson, advertising manager of The Indianapolis News, in a conversation about Newspaper Directories and advertising publications, recently said: "I believe the American Newspaper Directory has gone further in bringing out the truth about newspaper circulation than any other publication. We think very highly of the American Newspaper Directory. I notice that Mr. Rowell's friends are the honest, strong newspapers of the country, and it is their indorsement that is worth most and counts most in showing that he is doing his work honestly and thoroughly. PRINTERS' INK is undoubtedly the leader among publications devoted to advertising. It is the first of its kind. I have read it from the beginning. I said from the beginning that it was telling just what I have learned in ten years' experience as a printer, pressman, publisher, reporter and advertising manager—telling just what people are anxious to know—secrets. That is what made it a success from the beginning. Everybody wants to know how to prepare advertising, how to make paying contracts, and PRINTERS' INK has devoted its entire career to telling these things. Everybody seeks favorable publicity for their work or their wares, and that is why I believe that everybody is interested in PRINTERS' INK."

Publishers "Printers' Ink,"

10 Spruce street,

New York.

Gentlemen:—

We are sufficiently well satisfied with our page in "Printers' Ink" to be willing to secure it for another year, if we may have it on the same terms as our present contract, viz: Ten thousand Four Hundred Dollars ($10,400.00) net cash.

Very truly yours,

THE RECORD PUBLISHING COMPANY,

William M. Singerly.
President.

The advertiser who has nothing in particular to advertise, and who inserts a three-line ad in PRINTERS' INK, to appear once a month or thereabouts, sometimes pays the price with a feeling that advertising produces no adequate result, and that his money was wasted: but the advertiser who buys a page in PRINTERS' INK, in a choice position, and tells a new and interesting story every week, for a whole year, may generally be counted on to renew his order. He has learned by experience that advertising is

The British American

Naturalization of all British Born Residents of this Country, the Support and Maintenance of the Constitution and Institutions of the United States.

PHILADELPHIA, Publication Office, N. E. Corner 6th and Chestnut Street.
NEW YORK, 21 Park Row. BOSTON, Equitable Building.

J. HENRY WILLIAMS, Editor.

A six-column, eight-page weekly paper, in its twelfth year of publication, designed for the promotion of the interests of the British people and their descendants in the United States and Canada, and to advance the naturalization and qualification of British residents in the interest of good government, and develop Trade and Commerce between United States and the Mother Country, etc.

Probably no other journal in the States offers a circulation covering so extensive a territory, and so important a constituency, representing, as it does, over five million British people or their descendants. It is also an invaluable medium for exchange, and medium of mutual information between the two countries. News from all parts of the States, Canada and Great Britain; Special articles from Anglo-Americans; Official reports of the doings of the British-American Association, Sons of St. George, and Scottish Societies are regularly given.

Subscription Rates, ONE YEAR, ONE DOLLAR.

Transmission abroad in postal union, $1.25.

Conceded to be one of the Best Advertising Mediums. Rates reasonable.

Address ADVERTISEMENT MANAGER, Publication Office, PHILADELPHIA.

Agents wanted in the States and Old Country, where paper can be seen on file in the British Museum, all Public Libraries and Institutions. Sample copies mailed on application. Correspondence and exchange solicited. Special contract rates.

TO ADVERTISERS

If you were asked to name the place to put an advertisement where the most people would see it, what would you say? After a moment's reflection you would doubtless answer: "The Barber Shop." Everybody or almost everybody goes there. Railroad Magnates, Theater Managers, Proprietors of Summer Resorts, Owners of Pleasure Boats, and in fact nearly all persons who have anything to sell recognize this fact, and their first effort is to place much of their advertising matter in the barber shops of every city and town of any size.

The National Barber Visits all the principal barber shops in this country and Canada, and with its bright pages attracts the attention of not only the tens of thousands of barbers in those shops, but also the almost uncountable army who daily visit barber shops, to read it. The National Barber is a favorite wherever it goes, which is strongly in favor of any advertising medium, as it imparts confidence from the start.

RUD. HEROLD.

IMPORTER AND DEALER IN FINE CUTLERY, FIRE ARMS AND AMMUNITION.

332 SEVENTH AVE., NEW YORK, Jan. 10, 1898.

Mr. E. T. TYNDALL, Phila., Pa.

DEAR SIR:—I feel it my duty to notify you of the good results one advertisement in your journal (The National Barber) brought me. I advertised the "Silver Steel" Razors in your journal and through one advertisement I have sold one hundred and fifteen of them at one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) each, in different parts of the United States, and I not only sold the razors but also sold other goods to parties who bought the razors. I consider your journal the best advertising medium I have ever tried, for I certainly never received such good results from any other paper.

RUD. HEROLD.

SHENANDOAH PA.

Circulates largely throughout the Shenandoah and Mahanoy Valleys of the Anthracite Coal regions, embracing a population of upwards of 100,000 people. The residents of the section in which it circulates can not be reached one-half as successfully through any other medium. Neither the Daily or Sunday edition has but enough to make them respected and influential. Advertising rates somewhat less than those of the N. Y. "World," or "Journal," but reasonable, circulation and character considered.

DER NEUTRALIST (GERMAN) AND MONTGOMERY TRANSCRIPT,
SKIPPACK, PA.

Publishers American Newspaper Directory,
New York City.

January 1, 1898.

Gentlemen—Inclosed herewith please find detailed statement of the circulation of the "Montgomery Transcript" for the year 1897.

In this connection it might not be amiss to say that we have never had any difficulty whatever to obtain a correct rating in your Directory, and we have not in five years advertised in the book, either. We know that publishers who send a statement to you that bears the stamp of truth have no difficulty in securing a correct rating.

With the compliments of the season, we beg to remain,

Yours very truly,

Eugene Daubert

Business Manager.

For PRINTERS' INK, I can say that I can trace to its influence, either directly or indirectly, at least eighty per cent of the letters of inquiry that I receive. And I believe from what I know and from what other advertisement writers have said, that my business has grown much more rapidly than any similar business ever grew.

Gentlemen:-

We take pleasure in saying that, after using the Semi-weekly American for the past year we have found it quite satisfactory. We, as you know, do considerable advertising, and have used various mediums, none of which we value so highly as your paper. The results that we have reached leads us to believe that you have all the circulation that you claim for your paper, and, we therefore, can recommend same in the highest terms.

Wishing you continued success, we are,

Yours truly,

RESULTS TELL

We believe that the best way to judge of the usefulness of a paper as an advertising medium is by the number of satisfied advertisers. We present a few testimonials for your consideration. We can say truthfully that DAILY ENTERPRISE is the only daily in Johnson County. It is an afternoon paper and goes into the homes of nearly every person in the city of Cleburne and suburbs. WEEKLY ENTERPRISE has a circulation of 1,500 in Johnson County and is outgrowing all its competitors. It is a hustler. Sample copies and advertising rates cheerfully furnished on application. We can refer you with pleasure to any of our advertisers, or any firm in Cleburne, as there is not a single firm who have not been patrons of the paper.

Respectfully yours, J. R. RANSONE, JR., Manager.

We have always found advertising in ENTERPRISE to be a good investment.

My advertising in ENTERPRISE has brought me good returns on all money invested. I am a continuous advertiser in ENTERPRISE. BLAIR FAIR & CO., Druggists. T. LAWRENCE, Jeweler.

TEXAS DEUTSCHE ZEITUNG

This paper can look back upon a quarter of a century of successful and profitable business, is delighted with having the largest circulation and most influence among the German population of South and Southeast Texas of any paper published in that part of the State, being well distributed in city and country. We contest the competition and ability of any other German publication published in this section, and can, for that reason, assert that the TEXAS DEUTSCHE ZEITUNG, as an advertising medium, is indispensable for such as wish to reach the united German public of South and Southeast Texas. Write for advertising rates to A. HAXTHAUSEN, Publisher, Houston, Texas.

Advertisement.—The sworn circulation of the San Angelo STANDARD for '97 was over 1,900 weekly. This is the largest circulation of any weekly published in Western Texas, and it covers effectually one of the finest cattle, sheep and horse-raising districts in North America. San Angelo is the largest cattle, sheep and wool shipping point in Texas. Shipments in '97 were: Wool, 5,000,000 lbs.; mutton, 210,000 head; cattle, 45,000 head. Last statement of two national banks here show $500,000 in deposits. Everybody has money to burn, and now is the time and the STANDARD is the medium with which to obtain a portion of that $500,000. Live stock and wool commission houses; breeders of fine stock; scab cures; hunting and fishing supplies; manufacturers of everything needed on a farm and ranch will find the STANDARD a most effective medium. Rates for a postal.

THE AMERICAN NEWSPAPER DIRECTORY is revised and issued quarterly on the first of March, June, September and December. Forms will close February 1, May 1, August 1 and November 1, and always one month in advance of the date of issue. Corrections will be made daily as authenticated information is received or obtained.

The price of the AMERICAN NEWSPAPER DIRECTORY will be $5, as heretofore. For $25, if paid in advance, subscribers may receive all the four issues of the Directory a year and Printers' Ink (issued weekly) for one year, thus having always the latest information, and in consideration of the payment ($25), strictly in advance, the subscriber may have the privilege of applying to the office for special confidential reports whenever wanted. # Which of These Classes Do You Patronize ?

There are three classes of newspaper publishers : First, those who believe an advertiser is entitled to know their circulation, and are willing that he should and to take any and every step desirable for accomplishing the purpose ; second, those who wish to have an advertiser think that they wish to have their circulation known, but are determined to avoid that result by every means possible ; third, those who believe that their circulation is a private matter and concerns no one but themselves, and that inquiries concerning it are an impertinence.—Printers' Ink.

The first class are doing business on lines recognized to be right in every class of business the world over.

The second class are usually designated as “circulation liars,” and should be classed with three-card monte sharps, etc.

The third class are men who are charging more for their advertising space than they themselves know it to be worth, and are only a slight degree better than the second class. They ask their patrons to do business with them on a basis which they would not concede to those that they patronize.—The Cycle Trade Journal (Philadelphia), November, 1897.

Advertisement.—The largest circulation in Eastern Virginia and Eastern North Carolina. During the past year the daily PILOT, of Norfolk, Va., has spared no energy or expense to increase its circulation. How well it has succeeded is illustrated by the following figures showing the average daily circulation each month during the year 1897: Jan., 3,285; Feb., 3,549; March, 3,513; April, 3,633; May, 3,656; June, 3,799; July, 3,986; August, 4,485; Sept., 4,385; Oct., 4,307; Nov., 4,777; Dec., 5,596. Present circulation radiates between 5,500 and 6,000. The same progressive methods which produced the above results will be continued during the present year, and an average daily circulation of 6,000 daily is reasonably assured in 1898. Local advertisers are in a position to know the value of local mediums. The PILOT carries more local patronage than any other paper published in its territory.

Guaranteed Circulation.

The Proprietors' Association of America, at its annual convention held recently in Richmond, Va., passed resolutions binding its members to give preference in placing their advertising to those newspapers and other publications which guarantee their circulation. The fact that this association is composed largely of advertisers of proprietary articles, many of them among the largest in the country, adds to the importance of this action.

The following are some extracts from the report of the committee:

"It can not be doubted that the circulations of a great many advertising mediums are greatly exaggerated, and that what the advertiser is getting for his money is many times an unknown quantity. Even the so-called 'known circulations' are known only to the publishers in many cases.

"However much general advertisers may desire to have personal examination in the circulation of every publication on their list of advertising mediums made, it is impossible for each individually to examine the books of such statements as publishers are willing to place before them to verify the circulation claimed. It is a favorite dodge on the part of the publishers to state that they are perfectly willing to have their books and records examined, well knowing that no large advertiser can afford to take the time or go to the expense that would be required to make such examination of each medium which he may patronize."—Advertising Experience.

A certain department store recently took an entire page in a number of afternoon papers. This advertisement contained only one item, which was boys' suits to sell at a price of less than $5. I understand that the advertisement cost the house over $1,000, and I believe it took a good deal of grit on the part of this store to put that much money into an advertisement of only one single item, and that one upon which they had no opportunity to make more than a few cents on each sale. The greater part of the advertisement consisted of a picture of the boys' suit. The description was in large type and the advertisement was really sensational from its size. I believe that this fact had a great deal to do with the success of the advertisement, and I do not believe that half a page or a quarter of a page would have produced half or quarter of the results that were produced by the page. The boldness of the idea is in itself attractive and commands attention. My correspondent informed me that the advertisement brought a wonderful response, and that if the firm had had on hand double the number of suits that they did have, they could have easily sold them. Before the day was nearly over the entire stock was exhausted, and the profit on the sale itself more than paid for the advertising, without considering the fact that the boys' clothing department of this firm had been indelibly stamped upon the minds of the public generally through the mere size of the one advertisement.—Chas. F. Jones, in Printers' Ink.

PART II.

OVER 1,000 CIRCULATION.

ONE THOUSAND IS THE GENERAL ADVERTISER'S UNIT OF VALUE. TO THE GENERAL ADVERTISER PAPERS OF LESS THAN A THOUSAND ISSUES ARE NOT OF MUCH ACCOUNT, BECAUSE THE COST OF WATCHING CONTRACTS AND KEEPING ACCOUNTS ADDED TO THE LOWEST OBTAINABLE PRICE (NO MATTER HOW LOW), GENERALLY MAKES THEM TOO DEAR TO BE PROFITABLE. OF ALL THE PUBLICATIONS DESCRIBED IN THIS BOOK NEARLY THREE-QUARTERS ARE RATED IN THE "JKL" CLASS, LEAVING FIVE THOUSAND EIGHT HUNDRED AND FIFTY-EIGHT ONLY WHICH ARE BELIEVED TO HAVE A CIRCULATION EACH ISSUE OF ONE THOUSAND COPIES AND UPWARDS. A CATALOGUE OF THESE HERE FOLLOWS.

EVERY PUBLISHER OF A NEWSPAPER ENTITLED TO A HIGHER CIRCULATION RATING THAN IS ACCORDED IN THIS BOOK KNOWS THAT IT WAS HIS PRIVILEGE TO HAVE HIS EXACT FIGURES INSERTED HAD HE BEEN ABLE AND WILLING TO FURNISH THEM, AND THAT IT IS HIS PRIVILEGE TO NOW FURNISH THE REQUISITE INFORMATION AND THEREBY SECURE A CORRECT RATING IN THE NEXT ISSUE, WHICH COMES OUT THREE MONTHS LATER. IN CASES WHERE A PUBLISHER IS UNWILLING TO SUPPLY THE REQUISITE INFORMATION, THE EXPERIENCE OF THE EDITOR OF THE DIRECTORY HAS TAUGHT HIM THAT IT IS ALWAYS FOR A REASON MORE SATISFACTORY TO THE PUBLISHER THAN IT WOULD BE TO AN ADVERTISER WHO IS THINKING OF USING THE ADVERTISING COLUMNS OF THE PAPER.*

Cabaniss.

In December, 1897, Mr. H. H. Cabaniss, Business Manager of the Atlanta Journal, writes as follows to Mr. S. C. Beckwith, the New York Agent for the Journal: "I have recently read in "Printers' Ink" and in the last volume of the American Newspaper Directory some discussion as to Mr. Rowell's fairness and justice in quoting circulations, being replies to criticisms by other publications. I am moved voluntarily to say that I have been a patron to the American Newspaper Directory for the past 25 years, from the time I was a publisher of a country weekly, later other publications, and for 10 years past publisher of The Atlanta Journal. I can not recall one instance in which my publication was not fairly quoted. I always comply with requirements and always get the rating to which I am entitled."

HOKE SMITH, PRESIDENT.

H. H. CABANISS, MANAGER.

THE NEW TIME

A Magazine of Social Progress.

Edited by B. O. Flower and Frederick Upham Adams.

The average circulation of THE NEW TIME for the first half of 1897 was 5,666.

The average circulation of THE NEW TIME for the last half of 1897 was 28,917.

The edition for January, 1898, was 30,000, for February 34,000.

Ten thousand copies a month go to the American News Company and its branches; our postage receipts account for the rest.

Copies are not being given away; the manufacturing cost is too heavy.

The edition for March, 1898, will be not less than 35,000.

The publishers guarantee that every subsequent edition for the year 1898 will exceed 35,000. The probability is that the monthly issue will reach 100,000 before the end of the year.

Advertising rates $60.00 per page, position at publishers' option, half and quarter pages in proportion; smaller advertisements 30 cts. per agate line; next reading matter, 35 cts. per agate line.

No time discounts are offered and no advertisement will be taken for more than one year at present rates.

THE NEW TIME,
56 Fifth Ave., City.

Gentlemen:

We have been advertising our Language System in different publications for several years, and have found usually that magazines of largest circulation paid us best for the money expended. However, in December, 1897, we placed our entire appropriation in publications of what might be called secondary circulation and influence. While the result has not been entirely satisfactory, we wish to say that some of the publications have yielded us very excellent returns, and at the head of the list stands THE NEW TIME. It has sold more sets of books for us than any other of the medium circulation magazines.

We have a perfect system of keying our advertisements, and are able to trace exactly the returns.

Trusting that your publication may continue to grow in circulation and influence, and assuring you of our patronage whenever we have advertising to place, we remain,

Yours very truly,

DR. R. S. ROSENTHAL LANGUAGE COLLEGE.

F. J. GAMBELL, Secretary.

Helping the Neighbors.

DECATUR, Ill., Jan. 15, 1898.

GENTLEMEN—The manager of the Review can testify from an experience of fifteen years that it is always easy to get a correct rating in the American Newspaper Directory. In all that time he never patronized the Directory five dollars' worth, and has never had to complain of an incorrect rating.

If we understand the plan under which the Directory is now being edited, you accord letter ratings according to your best information when detailed statements are not made. We do not know by what failure on their part you have rated the Herald-Despatch and the Republican of this city in the "J K L" class. We think you would hardly suspect us of wanting to give them a rating higher than they are entitled to, and therefore we trust, when we say that to our knowledge the Herald-Despatch is entitled to a rating of daily H and weekly H, and the Republican is entitled to a rating of daily I and weekly I, you will deem this evidence of sufficient weight to warrant you in making the change in your next Directory.

Our reason for asking this is that we do frequently refer advertisers to the circulation ratings of the American Newspaper Directory, and we find the strength of our comparative condition lessened by the fact that those who are at all familiar with the situation know very well that the Republican has a circulation exceeding 1,000, and the Herald-Despatch has a circulation exceeding 2,250. When, therefore, they see these two papers put in the J K L class they know that in two cases at least there have been incorrect ratings, and we fear it tends to lessen their faith in the value of the rating accorded the Review. As far as we are concerned, therefore, we would prefer to see both these papers where they belong. Yours very truly,

Review Publishing Co.,

Manager.,

It is the practice of the editor of the American Newspaper Directory to pay a great deal of attention to what is said about the circulation of his competitors by a newspaper man who makes a definite and satisfactory report of his own issues. In pursuance of that principle the editor of the Directory will rate the Decatur Herald-Despatch H in the future editions, and the Republican I, in accordance with the information so kindly and generously conveyed by their neighbor, Mr. Drennan. Inasmuch as the Review still gets credit for issuing about as many copies as the Republican and Herald-Despatch combined, its publishers can afford to be generous.

PITTSFIELD, MASS., February 5, 1898.

Editor of THE AMERICAN NEWSPAPER DIRECTORY.

There is more or less fault found with the way you rate newspapers, but as far as I am concerned I do not see how any one can do so consistently. They have all the opportunity in the world to get a correct and honest rating. I imagine that the chief critics are those publishers who are afraid to show their circulation to the advertisers.

THE FLINT, MICH., DAILY NEWS

Is the most reliable and energetic daily newspaper published in this thriving and beautiful city. It has much the largest bona fide circulation (no dead head list) in the city. In the eleven years the undersigned have been its publishers and proprietors, the employees have never missed a pay-day (all cash, no forcing of store orders), and all bills were paid and discounts saved. The plant was all "run down" when we purchased it, and we have built it up to its present magnificent proportions, that of the best and largest newspaper and job printing plant in the city. The advertising rates are low, considering the character of the paper and its large circulation, which is now 1,585.

W. H. WERKHEISER & SONS, Pubs. and Props.

We also publish the Genesee Democrat (Weekly)

the list of which is worth more than the combined lists of any two papers in the county, because all of our subscribers pay. We do not claim to print and circulate more than any other two papers, but get more money out of our list than any two others in the county. A few choice positions left. Circulation 2,880.

Picked Out.

The largest advertisers can not use all the good newspaper space that is offered to them; they must pick out the comparatively few papers which they consider the very best for their purpose; they skim off the cream of the cream. This class of advertisers diligently peruse PRINTERS' INK because they know that only papers worthy of their attention are advertised in its pages. Unless your paper has undoubted claims upon their consideration, it would hardly pay for you to advertise in PRINTERS' INK, and its publishers would prefer you did not; but if your paper has such claims, the announcement of them in PRINTERS' INK is the most profitable form of advertising for you. Very profitable indeed.

In 1889 I began reading and studying Printers' Ink.

My first ad in Printers' Ink appeared in the issue of September 28, 1892.

It cost $1.

It brought me $4.

That was the beginning of my success as a professional advertisement writer.

In December, 1892, A. W. Peterson, of the Indianapolis News, recommended me to the Pettis Dry Goods Co., of Indianapolis, as advertising manager, and a favorable comment on my work published a short time before in Printers' Ink clinched the recommendation.

In September, 1893, I came to New York and took desk room in the Vanderbilt Building.

Before coming I took the precaution to advertise in Printers' Ink.

When I reached New York I found orders waiting for me.

In the month of October, 1893, I received and executed $206 worth of orders, every dollar of which came directly from advertising in Printers' Ink.

Each succeeding month's business amounted to more than the last, until in September, 1895, the total for the month was $2,081.

At the present time my average business with advertisers (including my "Syndicate" work for over 4,000 retailers) is over $12,000 a month.

I consider my whole business the quick but natural growth from my first $1 ad in Printers' Ink.

My real knowledge of advertising began with Printers' Ink, and I know that I would not to-day be capable of handling my business were it not for my eight years of faithful, earnest, persistent study of the teachings of the "Little Schoolmaster in the Art of Advertising."

CHARLES AUSTIN BATES.

Guaranteed Circulation.

The Proprietors' Association of America, at its annual convention held recently in Richmond, Va., passed resolutions binding its members to give preference in placing their advertising to those newspapers and other publications which guarantee their circulation. The fact that this association is composed largely of advertisers of proprietary articles, many of them among the largest in the country, adds to the importance of this action.

The following are some extracts from the report of the committee:

"It can not be doubted that the circulations of a great many advertising mediums are greatly exaggerated, and that what the advertiser is getting for his money is many times an unknown quantity. Even the so-called 'known circulations' are known only to the publishers in many cases.

"However much general advertisers may desire to have personal examination in the circulation of every publication on their list of advertising mediums made, it is impossible for each individually to examine the books of such statements as publishers are willing to place before them to verify the circulation claimed. It is a favorite dodge on the part of the publishers to state that they are perfectly willing to have their books and records examined, well knowing that no large advertiser can afford to take the time or go to the expense that would be required to make such examination of each medium which he may patronize."—Advertising Experience.

Which of These Classes Do You Patronize ?

There are three classes of newspaper publishers : First, those who believe an advertiser is entitled to know their circulation, and are willing that he should and to take any and every step desirable for accomplishing the purpose ; second, those who wish to have an advertiser think that they wish to have their circulation known, but are determined to avoid that result by every means possible ; third, those who believe that their circulation is a private matter and concerns no one but themselves, and that inquiries concerning it are an impertinence.—Printers' Ink.

The first class are doing business on lines recognized to be right in every class of business the world over.

The second class are usually designated as “circulation liars,” and should be classed with three-card monte sharps, etc.

The third class are men who are charging more for their advertising space than they themselves know it to be worth, and are only a slight degree better than the second class. They ask their patrons to do business with them on a basis which they would not concede to those that they patronize.—The Cycle Trade Journal (Philadelphia), November, 1897.

One reason why it pays a good paper so well to advertise in "Printers' Ink" is because a paper has to have a pretty substantial claim to being a good paper or "Printers' Ink" will not accept its advertisement. Now you come to think of it, did you ever know a poor paper to be advertised in "Printers' Ink?"

SUNDAY NEWSPAPERS.

A LIST IN ALPHABETICAL ORDER BY STATES AND TOWNS, RECAPITULATING ALL NEWSPAPERS HAVING A SUNDAY ISSUE ACCORDED IN PART I. A CIRCULATION RATING OF 1,000 AND UPWARDS.

ONE THOUSAND IS THE GENERAL ADVERTISER'S UNIT OF VALUE. TO THE GENERAL ADVERTISER PAPERS OF LESS THAN A THOUSAND ISSUES ARE NOT OF MUCH ACCOUNT, BECAUSE THE COST OF WATCHING CONTRACTS AND KEEPING ACCOUNTS, ADDED TO THE LOWEST OBTAINABLE PRICE (NO MATTER HOW LOW), GENERALLY MAKES THEM TOO DEAR TO BE PROFITABLE. OF ALL THE PUBLICATIONS DESCRIBED IN THIS BOOK NEARLY THREE-QUARTERS ARE RATED IN THE "JKL" CLASS, LEAVING LESS THAN SIX THOUSAND WHICH ARE BELIEVED TO HAVE A CIRCULATION EACH ISSUE OF ONE THOUSAND COPIES AND UPWARDS.

EVERY PUBLISHER OF A NEWSPAPER ENTITLED TO A HIGHER CIRCULATION RATING THAN IS ACCORDED IN THIS BOOK KNOWS THAT IT WAS HIS PRIVILEGE TO HAVE HIS EXACT FIGURES INSERTED HAD HE BEEN ABLE AND WILLING TO FURNISH THEM, AND THAT IT IS HIS PRIVILEGE TO NOW FURNISH THE REQUISITE INFORMATION AND THEREBY SECURE A CORRECT RATING IN THE NEXT ISSUE, WHICH COMES OUT THREE MONTHS LATER. IN CASES WHERE A PUBLISHER IS UNWILLING TO SUPPLY THE REQUISITE INFORMATION, THE EXPERIENCE OF THE EDITOR OF THE DIRECTORY HAS TAUGHT HIM THAT IT IS ALWAYS FOR A REASON MORE SATISFACTORY TO THE PUBLISHER THAN IT WOULD BE TO AN ADVERTISER WHO IS THINKING OF USING THE ADVERTISING COLUMNS OF THAT PAPER.*

Cabaniss.

In December, 1897, Mr. H. H. Cabaniss, Business Manager of the Atlanta Journal, writes as follows to Mr. S. C. Beckwith, the New York Agent for the Journal: "I have recently read in "Printers' Ink" and in the last volume of the American Newspaper Directory some discussion as to Mr. Rowell's fairness and justice in quoting circulations, being replies to criticisms by other publications. I am moved voluntarily to say that I have been a patron to the American Newspaper Directory for the past 25 years, from the time I was a publisher of a country weekly, later other publications, and for 10 years past publisher of The Atlanta Journal. I can not recall one instance in which my publication was not fairly quoted. I always comply with requirements and always get the rating to which I am entitled."

HOKE SMITH, PRESIDENT.

H. H. CABANISS, MANAGER.

The advertiser who has not seen our list of choicest American Newspapers for an advertiser's use has missed a good thing. It's a little bit of a list, only a few dozen papers and periodicals in all, but every one is a great advertising medium. List sent free on application. Address The Geo. P. Rowell Advertising Company, No. 10 Spruce Street, New York City.

To get it you have to be entitled to it and to ask for it.

EVERY PERSON who places advertising through us to the amount of $100 will be presented with either a year's subscription to PRINTERS' INK, or a copy of the latest issue of the American Newspaper Directory, provided he asks for it. If the patronage amounts to $200, both PRINTERS' INK and the American Newspaper Directory may be had if demanded. The customer whose business amounts to $1,000 will be made a member of the American Newspaper Directory Confidential Information Bureau, and be thereby entitled to receive PRINTERS' INK regularly and a new edition of the Directory every March, June, September and December, as it appears; also be allowed the privilege of applying to the publishers of the Directory, at pleasure, for a confidential report concerning the circulation or character of any newspaper credited by the American Newspaper Directory with a circulation rating greater than 1,000 copies per issue.

Among the first subscribers to the Confidential Information Bureau were:

The Royal Baking Powder Co., 100 William St., N. Y. City.

The Procter & Gamble Co., Cincinnati, Ohio.

Messrs. Wyckoff, Seamans & Benedict, 327 Broadway, N. Y. City.

The J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

Messrs. James Pyle & Sons, 436 Greenwich St., N. Y. City.

One reason why it pays a good paper so well to advertise in "Printers' Ink" is because a paper has to have a pretty substantial claim to being a good paper or "Printers' Ink" will not accept its advertisement. Now you come to think of it, did you ever know a poor paper to be advertised in "Printers' Ink?"

IV.

CLASS PUBLICATIONS.

LIST IN ALPHABETICAL ORDER BY STATES, RECAPITULATING THE NEWSPAPERS AND PERIODICALS OF THE VARIOUS CLASSES, TRADES AND INTERESTS ACCORDED IN PART I. A CIRCULATION OF 1,000 AND UPWARDS.

ONE THOUSAND IS THE GENERAL ADVERTISER'S UNIT OF VALUE. TO THE GENERAL ADVERTISER PAPERS OF LESS THAN A THOUSAND ISSUES ARE NOT OF MUCH ACCOUNT, BECAUSE THE COST OF WATCHING CONTRACTS AND KEEPING ACCOUNTS, ADDED TO THE LOWEST OBTAINABLE PRICE (NO MATTER HOW LOW), GENERALLY MAKES THEM TOO DEAR TO BE PROFITABLE. OF ALL THE PUBLICATIONS DESCRIBED IN THIS BOOK NEARLY THREE-QUARTERS ARE RATED IN THE "JKL" CLASS, LEAVING LESS THAN SIX THOUSAND WHICH ARE BELIEVED TO HAVE A CIRCULATION EACH ISSUE OF ONE THOUSAND COPIES AND UPWARDS.

EVERY PUBLISHER OF A NEWSPAPER ENTITLED TO A HIGHER CIRCULATION RATING THAN IS ACCORDED IN THIS BOOK KNOWS THAT IT WAS HIS PRIVILEGE TO HAVE HIS EXACT FIGURES INSERTED HAD HE BEEN ABLE AND WILLING TO FURNISH THEM, AND THAT IT IS HIS PRIVILEGE TO NOW FURNISH THE REQUISITE INFORMATION, AND THEREBY SECURE A CORRECT RATING IN THE NEXT ISSUE, WHICH COMES OUT THREE MONTHS LATER. IN CASES WHERE A PUBLISHER IS UNWILLING TO SUPPLY THE REQUISITE INFORMATION, THE EXPERIENCE OF THE EDITOR OF THE DIRECTORY HAS TAUGHT HIM THAT IT IS ALWAYS FOR A REASON MORE SATISFACTORY TO THE PUBLISHER THAN IT WOULD BE TO AN ADVERTISER WHO IS THINKING OF USING THE ADVERTISING COLUMNS OF THAT PAPER.*

Cabaniss.

In December, 1897, Mr. H. H. Cabaniss, Business Manager of the Atlanta Journal, writes as follows to Mr. S. C. Beckwith, the New York Agent for the Journal: "I have recently read in "Printers' Ink" and in the last volume of the American Newspaper Directory some discussion as to Mr. Rowell's fairness and justice in quoting circulations, being replies to criticisms by other publications. I am moved voluntarily to say that I have been a patron to the American Newspaper Directory for the past 25 years, from the time I was a publisher of a country weekly, later other publications, and for 10 years past publisher of The Atlanta Journal. I can not recall one instance in which my publication was not fairly quoted. I always comply with requirements and always get the rating to which I am entitled."

HOKE SMITH, PRESIDENT.

H. H. CABANISS, MANAGER.

In 1889 I began reading and studying Printers' Ink. My first ad in Printers' Ink appeared in the issue of September 28, 1892.

It cost $1.

It brought me $4.

That was the beginning of my success as a professional advertisement writer.

In December, 1892, A. W. Peterson, of the Indianapolis News, recommended me to the Pettis Dry Goods Co., of Indianapolis, as advertising manager, and a favorable comment on my work published a short time before in Printers' Ink clinched the recommendation.

In September, 1893, I came to New York and took desk room in the Vanderbilt Building.

Before coming I took the precaution to advertise in Printers' Ink.

When I reached New York I found orders waiting for me.

In the month of October, 1893, I received and executed $206 worth of orders, every dollar of which came directly from advertising in Printers' Ink.

Each succeeding month's business amounted to more than the last, until in September, 1895, the total for the month was $2,081.

At the present time my average business with advertisers (including my "Syndicate" work for over 4,000 retailers) is over $12,000 a month.

I consider my whole business the quick but natural growth from my first $1 ad in Printers' Ink.

My real knowledge of advertising began with Printers' Ink, and I know that I would not to-day be capable of handling my business were it not for my eight years of faithful, earnest, persistent study of the teachings of the "Little Schoolmaster in the Art of Advertising."

CHARLES AUSTIN BATES.

One reason why it pays a good paper so well to advertise in "Printers' Ink" is because a paper has to have a pretty substantial claim to being a good paper or "Printers' Ink" will not accept its advertisement. Now you come to think of it, did you ever know a poor paper to be advertised in "Printers' Ink?"

GEO. P. ROWELL & CO.

Messrs G. P. Rowell & Co.,
10 Spruce Street,
New York, U. S. A.

Dear Sirs,

Herewith I have pleasure in forwarding Cheque Bank cheques for the amount of five hundred copies weekly, of "Printers Ink" during 1898 and will you please remember that my present subscription does not run out until the second number of 1898, as I missed Vol. XVII Nos 2, & 3, this year, which you did not send me.

I was very pleased to observe the notice you gave me some few weeks since in "Printers Ink" in reference to my removal to these premises. I thank you very much for this and have found it has already proved of some service.

Yours faithfully,

F. W. Sears

This is a renewal order for five hundred annual subscriptions for Printers' Ink for English advertisers for the year 1898.

One reason why it pays a good paper so well to advertise in "Printers' Ink" is because a paper has to have a pretty substantial claim to being a good paper or "Printers' Ink" will not accept its advertisement. Now you come to think of it, did you ever know a poor paper to be advertised in "Printers' Ink?"

Picked Out.

The largest advertisers can not use all the good newspaper space that is offered to them; they must pick out the comparatively few papers which they consider the very best for their purpose; they skim off the cream of the cream. This class of advertisers diligently peruse PRINTERS' INK because they know that only papers worthy of their attention are advertised in its pages. Unless your paper has undoubted claims upon their consideration, it would hardly pay for you to advertise in PRINTERS' INK, and its publishers would prefer you did not; but if your paper has such claims, the announcement of them in PRINTERS' INK is the most profitable form of advertising for you. Very profitable indeed.

"MUCH ADO ABOUT NOTHING."

A NEWSPAPER DETERMINES TO HAVE ITS CIRCULATION CORRECTLY RATED IN THE AMERICAN NEWSPAPER DIRECTORY AND EMPLOYS LEGAL TALENT TO PREPARE A REPORT THAT COULD JUST AS WELL BE MADE BY ANY SCHOOLBOY, AND FINALLY, AFTER NINE MONTHS OF EFFORT, GETS IT RIGHT AND SENDS IT IN JUST SIX WEEKS AFTER THE BOOK IT WAS INTENDED FOR HAD GONE TO PRESS.

In Victoria, the capital of the province of British Columbia, there was established in the year 1894 a weekly paper called the Province. It was first described in the American Newspaper Directory for 1895, and in accordance with the custom, when the name of a paper appears for the first time, no circulation rating was accorded. When the revision of the Directory for 1896 was under way the usual application was sent to the Province for information upon which a correct circulation rating might be based, but no information being forthcoming the editor of the Directory rated the circulation of the paper in accordance with such information as he had at hand. The rating accorded to the Province in the Directory for 1896 was L, which, as is explained by the key, means exceeding one hundred copies. In February, 1897, Martin & Langley opened a correspondence with the publishers of the Directory and the same has proceeded pleasantly through nine months. The letters that have passed thus far are printed here:

MARTIN & LANGLEY, Barristers-at-Law, }

VICTORIA, B. C., Can., Feb. 18, 1897.

Messrs. George P. Rowell & Co., Publishers
American Newspaper Directory, 10 Spruce Street, New York, U. S. A.:

DEAR SIRS—Our attention has been drawn by "The Province Ltd. Lby." of this city to the item in your American Newspaper Directory for 1896 regarding the Province newspaper, of which they are the publishers and proprietors. Our clients are at a loss to understand how you arrived at the rating of circulation "L" given in that item, which is no approach to the truth, and is calculated to injure, and has indeed injured, their business appreciably. On referring to your key we find "L" signifies "exceeding 100" and under 400, which latter circulation is assigned to "K." At the very commencement of the paper two thousand copies were circulated, the object being to keep this up till every person named in the British Columbia directory as residing in this province had received a copy of the paper. In December, 1895, there was a bona fide circulation of 1,848; last year the circulation reached 3,500, average, and on special editions reached 7,000, and it is steadily increasing.

We may mention that our clients believe it was almost entirely owing to your unjustifiable statement that an agent of the paper, who was sent on an advertising trip to Washington, Oregon and California, met with very poor success in this expensive venture; they know of at least one case where an advertising contract was specifically refused on the ground of your rating.

Our clients never received any circular from you to give information, but even if they had, and refused to give it, this would not justify you in making such reckless statements, when any respectable business man in this city would have told you that your rating of the Province was preposterous—so preposterous that our clients are almost reluctantly driven to the conclusion that there is something malicious in your report.

Under these circumstances we have to request you to be good enough to take steps to inform us immediately how you propose to rectify the damage you have done; and you will please understand that if you do not promptly seize this opportunity to manifest a disposition to make ample amends, we have instructions to forward the case to our agents in your city for immediate suit without further notice. In order that there shall be no doubt as to the receipt of this letter by you, we take the precaution of registering it.

MARTIN & LANGLEY.

NEW YORK, Feb. 25, 1897.

Messrs. Martin & Langley, 43 Government
st., Victoria, B. C.:

GENTLEMEN—Your letter of February 18th is at hand.

Will you kindly inform us what steps we can take that will be satisfactory to your client and make everybody happy? We presume you will ask nothing that is not reasonable, and if we are in error we shall certainly comply with pleasure with any reasonable request. We are your obedient servants,

GEO. P. ROWELL & Co.,

Publishers of the American Newspaper
Directory.

VICTORIA, B. C., Can., March 5, 1897.

Messrs. Geo. P. Rowell & Co.:

Re Province Newspaper.

Your letter of the 25th February received. What our clients require that you should do is: (a) Publish in the British Columbia section of your directory a prominent notice rectifying your error, and expressing regret for the same; (b) Send out circulars to same effect to the principal business houses in California, Oregon, Washington and British Columbia; (c) Send letter to our clients of correction and apology, so that they may show it to their advertisers and remove the false impression you have created.

Our letter of the 18th February supplies you with the full information necessary to comply with these three requests.

If you promptly comply our clients will be satisfied, but were they at all of a vindictive disposition you would not get off so easily. We shall expect an answer by return mail.

MARTIN & LANGLEY.

NEW YORK, March 15, 1897.

Messrs. Martin & Langley:

Your letter of March 5th is duly at hand.

As a preliminary for further steps will you kindly cause your client, the Province newspaper, to fill up the circulation blank sent you herewith and return the same to us, duly signed and dated?

Your kind attention will greatly oblige your obedient servants,

GEO. P. ROWELL & Co.,

Publishers of the American Newspaper Directory.

Inclosed one of the large circulation blanks.

VICTORIA, B. C., Can., April 1, 1897.

Messrs. Geo. P. Rowell & Co.:

Re Province Newspaper.

Our clients, the "Province Limited Liability," publishers of the Province newspaper, have handed us a circular, received from you, together with a proof of that part of your Directory for this year relating to British Columbia. We notice that in spite of what we have written to you in this matter, you persist in giving them a wrong rating as to their circulation, which you have put down as "J K L."

If you will refer to our letters of the 18th February and the 5th of March, respectively, you will see that we furnished you sufficient information of the circulation of this paper to enable you to make amends in the manner required by our letter of the 5th ult. You do not appear to have taken any steps to carry out those requirements, and your letter of the 15th ult. is no answer to our letter.

Under the circumstances we now point out to you that in the face of the information you have received, the publication by you of any such statement about this paper as appears in the proof already mentioned will be an aggravation of the libel you have already committed, and that we are writing to our agents in New York to take such proceedings as may be necessary. We may add that we are surprised that you should pursue the course you have taken in this matter after being made acquainted with the facts by us. Yours faithfully,

MARTIN & LANGLEY.

LAW OFFICE OF GEORGE W. HUBBELL,
346 Broadway, New York City.

May 11, 1897.

Messrs. George P. Rowell & Co., Publishers
American Newspaper Directory, No. 10
Spruce st., City:

DEAR SIRS—My clients, "The Province Limited Liability Company," publishers of a newspaper called the Province, at Victoria, B. C., have placed in my hands for attention a claim against you for damages on account of a certain rating at circulation, given in your American Newspaper Directory for 1896. The correspondence which has already passed between Messrs. Martin & Langley, of Victoria, and yourselves has been placed in my hands. My clients claim that you have greatly injured them by your action, not only with respect to your original rating of "L," but your subsequent rating of "J K L," after having received full information from my clients. Will you please give this matter your early attention? Very truly yours,

GEO. W. HUBBELL.

NEW YORK CITY, May 17, 1897.

Mr. G. W. Hubbell, 346 Broadway, New York:

DEAR SIR—Replying to your favor of May 11th, we have carefully investigated the case of the newspaper called the Province, of Victoria, B. C., and inclose herewith a statement of the facts concerning it. Will you kindly examine this statement, and having done so, tell us what, in your opinion, ought to be done?

We shall be very glad to see you in our office at any time to furnish any further information which you may desire and which we can give. Yours very respectfully,

GEO. P. ROWELL & Co.,

Publishers of the American Newspaper Directory.

P. S.—We also send you a copy of the American Newspaper Directory for 1896.

NOTE: The Directory circular inclosed was March 4th issue and pages indicated thereon.

NEW YORK CITY, July 19, 1897.

Messrs. Geo. P. Rowell & Co.:

Your letter of May 17, with inclosures, came duly to hand, and I submitted the same to my clients. In reply, they instruct me to demand from you that you (a) Publish in the British Columbia section of your Directory a prominent notice rectifying your error and expressing regret for the same; (b) Send out circulars to same effect to the principal houses in California, Oregon, Washington and British Columbia; (c) Send letter to our clients of correction and apology, so that they may show it to their advertisers and remove the false impression you have created.

If you will comply promptly and perform these various requirements, the matter may be considered settled, otherwise I am instructed to bring suit against you.

GEO. W. HUBBELL.

NEW YORK, July 26, 1897.

G. W. Hubbell, Esq.:

Your letter of July 19th, in connection with a previous communication from you, seems to assume that we have made some erroneous or injurious publication concerning a paper called the Province, of Victoria, B. C. If we have been remiss, as you appear to suppose, we shall be only too glad to take every proper step to right the supposed wrong. At the present time, however, we find it difficult to designate the extent or substance of our supposed error or wrongdoing, and that being the case, are puzzled to discover how we may publish a notice rectifying an error that, so far as we know, may not have been committed.

If you will be so kind as to prepare for us the form of paragraph or communication that will be satisfactory and pleasing to your clients under the requirements set down in your letter under specifications and c. we shall be very glad to adopt them if it seems comprehensible, reasonable and proper.

GEO. P. ROWELL & CO.

NEW YORK, Aug 8, 1897.

Messrs. Geo. P. Rowell & Co.:

In accordance with the terms of your letter of July 26th, I herewith send you form of notice, circular and letter of correction and apology, which have been approved by my clients, and which you are requested to sign and send out. Please let me hear from you.

G. W. HUBBELL.

NOTICE—CIRCULAR—LETTER.

(a) Prominent notice in British Columbia section of American Newspaper Directory, rectifying error and expressing regret for the same as follows:

"N. B.—We regret to say that in our issue for 1896 the rating of the Province newspaper, of Victoria, was, through inadvertence, given as circulation 'L,' whereas the correct rating should have been 'H.'"

(b) Send out circulars to same effect to the principal business houses in California,

Oregon, Washington and British Columbia. The circular may follow exact words of above notice, with the addition of these further words: "The circulation of the Province newspaper is now, we believe, 3,750."

(c) Letter of correction and apology, so that our clients may show it to their advertisers and remove false impression. Letter as follows:

"To the Secretary the Province Limited Liability, Victoria, B. C.:

"DEAR SIR—We have considered your complaint in regard to our rating of your newspaper, the Province, at 'L' (above 100) in our American Newspaper Directory for 1896. We find that your paper should have then been rated at 'H' (exceeding 2,250). We regret very much to learn that our error has been harmful to your advertising business, and trust that you will accept our apology for the unintentional mistake.

"We are glad to learn that your circulation has now reached such a large figure as 3,750 since you were established in March, 1894."

Note further: The Province should be described in the Directory as follows:

"The Province: Saturdays; independent; 32 pages, 9x13; subscription, $1; established 1894. The Province Limited Liability, editors and publishers; circulation, 'H.'"

NEW YORK, Sept. 1, 1897.

George W. Hubbell, Esq.:

Answering your letter of August 23d, we desire to remind you that the circulation rating accorded to the Province in the American Newspaper Directory for 1896 purported to be the average issue during the year 1895. In order, therefore, that there may be no injustice done and no misunderstanding, it would appear that before announcing that the circulation rating accorded to the Province in the Directory for 1896 was wrong, and setting forth what would have been a correct rating, it would seem advisable that due precaution be taken to learn that the publishers of the Province who furnish the information upon which a correction may be based, have in mind the same period, and also the average issue for the period. Otherwise, what is offered as a correction may tend to mystify or mislead advertisers who rely upon the Directory reports.

You will kindly procure from the publishers of the Province the information which appears to be needed you will oblige

Geo. P. Rowell & Co.

P. S.—For the convenience of the publishers of the Province we send you herewith blank forms such as are sometimes used by publishers for conveying the desired information, and would suggest that for the purpose of avoiding future errors a statement be made to cover the year 1896, as well 1895, and, if the publishers of the Province desire, they may furnish one for the first six months of the year 1897.

(MEMO.) Sept. 1, 1897.

Case of the Victoria (B. C.) Province.

This paper did not send a detailed report of circulation to the American Newspaper Directory covering the year 1896.

It did not send a detailed report covering the first six months of 1897.

It sent no report of any kind at any time.

We wrote his attorneys March 15th, in answer to their communication, that as a preliminary for further steps they should cause their client to fill out the inclosed circulation blank and return it to us, signed and dated.

This was not done.

NEW YORK CITY, Oct. 20, 1897

Messrs. Geo. P. Rowell & Co.:

Re Province vs Rowell.

Answering your letter of September 1st, I herewith inclose detailed statements of the circulation of the Province from June 1st, 1895, to May 31st, 1896, and from June 1st, 1896, to May 31st, 1897.

I hope upon receipt of this, you will at once send out the notice, circular, and letter of correction and apology which I sent you on August 23rd. Please let me hear from you at once.

G. W. HUBBELL.

(Signed) C. L. CULLIN, Foreman.

New York, October 20, 1897.

George W. Hubbell, Esq. :

The communication you send us from the Province seems to fail to convey the information needed, inasmuch as the circulation rating complained of was for the year 1895, and the information now furnished covers only a portion of that year.

If you do not think we are more particular than we should be, we would like to have you consider as a lawyer two points: First, whether the foreman when he signed the statement sent, ought not to have signed with a pen instead of with a typewriter; and, second, whether he ought not to say what he is foreman of—whether of the composing-room or of the press-room, or of what—and state that he occupied the position at the time concerning which the inquiry is pending, and that he knows of his own knowledge that the facts are as he states.

Trusting you will not think us too particular and insistent, we are,

GEO. P. ROWELL & Co.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22, 1897.

Messrs. George P. Rowell & Co. :

Re Province vs. Rowell.

I think we have complied in a reasonable manner with your requirements, and must now call upon you for the fulfilment of your agreement with respect to circular, letter of apology, etc. The statements which I sent you cover the average circulation of the Province from June 1, 1895, to May 31, 1897, and the originals are signed with the pen by the foreman, who, I understand, is the foreman of the paper.

I ask your early attention to this matter, as I can not ask my clients to do anything further, as they have suggested that you do not intend to give them any satisfaction in the end, and that the outcome of the whole matter will be a suit at law. You can easily avoid this if you will do what you promised. I will expect a very early reply to this letter.

G. W. HUBBELL.

I send you herewith the original statements.

NEW YORK, October 23, 1897.

George W. Hubbell, Esq., 346 Broadway, New York :

DEAR SIR—Your letter of October 22d is at hand.

If at this stage you think the interests of your client require a law-suit for their proper adjustment, please go right ahead. We are your obedient servants,

GEO. P. ROWELL & Co.

P. S. Of course you know that the report sent does not cover the period in controversy.

NEW YORK CITY, }

Messrs. Geo. P. Rowell & Co. :

Re "Province" vs. Rowell.

I herewith send you detailed statement of the circulation of the Province, and average from Jan. 1, 1895, to Dec. 31st of the same year, certified to as being correct, also a similar statement covering the year 1896. These two statements are certified to by Walter C. Nichol and James G. Young, and are regularly sworn to. Having now literally complied with all of your demands, I hope you will at once make the reparation which has been agreed upon.

G. W. HUBBELL.

Re Province vs. Rowell.

DEAR SIRS—In answer to your letter of
 Nov. 30, I herewith inclose an affidavit of Walter Cameron Nichol and James G. Young, which accompanied the statements A and B,
 which I sent you, and which by some inad-vertence was detached, and not sent to you.
 Please attach this affidavit to statements A and B, and the return will be complete.

 IN THE MATTER OF
 THE "PROVINCE"
 NEWSPAPER.

TO WIT:

WE, WALTER CAMERON NICHOL, of the city of Victoria, in the Province of British Columbia, editor of the Province newspaper, and JAMES GARDAM YOUNG, of the same place, accountant, severally do solemnly declare as follows:

1. That hereto annexed marked "A" and
 "B" respectively, are detailed statements showing the circulation of the Province newspaper for the years 1895 and 1896.

2. That the said statements have been carefully compiled from the books of the publishers of the said newspaper, and we do verily believe that the said statements are true in substance and in fact.

And we make this solemn declaration conscientiously, believing it to be true, and knowing that it is of the same force and effect as if it were made under oath and by virtue of "The Canada Evidence Act, 1893."

DECLARED by both the above-named depo-
 nents severally at Victoria, in the Province of British Columbia, on the 10th
 day of November,
 A. D. 1897. }
 W. C. NICHOL,
 JAMES G. YOUNG.

Before me, W. H. LANGLEY, a notary public in and for the Province of British Columbia.

It would appear that the Province had a regular average issue during 1895 of 1,759 copies, which is a very handsome circulation indeed. To any one who has followed this correspondence it would appear that the publishers of the Province must have had some feeling about the matter and been anxious to have their circulation stated correctly in the Directory. To accomplish this they have employed first a lawyer in Victoria, and afterwards another in New York, who have conducted a correspondence extending over a period of nine months, and have finally induced their clients to supply to the publishers of the Directory such information as would enable them to state that the circulation of the Province has been 1,759 copies in 1895 and 3,066 in 1896, as above stated. How much easier it would have been for the publishers of the Province in the beginning to have sent to the editor of the Directory just such a statement as they now send after nine months' correspondence under the instructions of two (doubtless) respectable law firms.

The editor of the Directory says that he is now at work upon a revision of his book for 1898, the thirtieth year, and that the first issue for that year will appear on the first day of March, 1898. It would seem that the Province would wish to have its circulation for the year 1897 correctly stated in that issue, and the editor of the Directory wonders whether, after the experience they have had, the publishers of the Province will see the propriety of sending in a statement for his guidance, or whether it will seem to them advisable to employ a lot of lawyers for another year to convey information when it is too late to be used. By dealing direct with the editor of the Directory they can be correctly reported without trouble or expense. This long story is of interest to the readers of PRINTERS' INK because it illustrates the care with which the American Newspaper Directory is edited and some of the difficulties with which its revisions are attended. Inasmuch as PRINTERS' INK is read by ALL advertisers, not only in California, Oregon, Washington, British Columbia, and Great Britain as well, and also by those distributed throughout the Canadas and the United States, it is hoped that the publication of all the facts in these pages will be deemed by the Province and its legal advisers a substantial, even a generous, compliance with their demands. If, after re-reading the correspondence, it should occur to these gentlemen that they have been to a deuced lot of trouble and to some expense to get what they might have had without any trouble at all, it may be that their experience may be worth to others what has been its cost to them, and it may be that these gentlemen are members of that great class who can only learn in "a dear school."

DROPPED FROM THE LIST.

AN IMAGINARY ACCOUNT OF A POSSIBLE INTERVIEW.

When a large, handsome man, with a diagonal coat cut bias, came into the office of PRINTERS' INK and presented the communication printed below, he did it with the manner of one conscious of performing a great and good action:

PITTSFIELD, Mass., Sept. 17, 1897.
Geo. P. Rowell & Co., New York, N. Y.:
 We would esteem it a favor if you would drop from your newspaper directory the name or any allusion to the Sunday Morning Call. Respectfully,

SUNDAY MORNING CALL,
 Per W. J. Oatman.

The editor of PRINTERS' INK, believing that there might be some misunderstanding about it, took the Pittsfield man to the editor of the American Newspaper Directory, and when the Directory man had read the letter the following conversation took place:

Directory Man—Do you publish a paper in Pittsfield?

P. M.—Yes.

D. M.—Well, I would esteem it a favor if in the future issues of your Sunday Morning Call you would omit all Pittsfield items.

P. M.—If I should omit the Pittsfield items there would not be any use of publishing the Morning Call.

D. M.—If I should omit the names of newspapers known to be issued, the Directory would not be valuable.

P. M.—The Directory is of no value to me.

D. M.—The Pittsfield Call is of no value to me; but I presume you would not suspend it on that account.

At this point the Pittsfield man seemed to conceive the idea that what he had asked was unreasonable. He even seemed to get the impression that he had been making a donkey of himself, and he hastily rose and gracefully withdrew.—Printers' Ink, issue of September 29, 1897.

THE AMERICAN NEWSPAPER DIRECTORY.

By Charles N. Kent.

(For seven years the editor.)

From its inception in 1869 until the issue of December, 1897, the writer has been intimately connected with the publication of every volume of the American Newspaper Directory. There was never a rule or regulation concerning the compilation or the editing that he did not know about. There was never a change that he was not first familiar with, and there was never a copy that did not in some way show his own handiwork.

For more than twenty years this book was his daily study in preparing lists for advertisers and estimates of cost for advertising space; for the past seven years he has had the direct supervision of an editor in every revision made, and believes this long experience enables him to write intelligently concerning the book and its value.

As it was the first so it has been the best authority upon newspapers, giving the most minute descriptions and accurate circulation ratings. To make each volume better, more accurate than the last, has been the publishers' constant aim, and not once in the past twenty-seven years has there been spared either money or labor to accomplish this result. No slight detail was ever regarded with less attention than an important department. The book is as nearly perfect as time, money and mechanical ingenuity admits of.

No advertiser, to the writer's knowledge, has ever asserted that there was a better book for his use, and there are few—very few—who do not regard and use it as the authority of greatest value.

The people who criticise it adversely are publishers who, without exception, are dissatisfied with the circulation rating accorded in the book to their own publications, and their dissatisfaction arises from the unwillingness or carelessness of the publisher, in failing to furnish the Directory with such facts as would enable the editor to give a more accurate rating. Every publisher is invited to place on file his statement of actual circulation in the simplest form, and no one who ever did this failed to receive a rating in accordance therewith. Every complaint from a publisher is carefully investigated. He is told in detail how he may secure a correct rating; he is offered every opportunity for doing so; if he still refuses to make a report the fault is with him—not with the Directory. From Volume I. to Volume XXIX, inclusive, there never has been given a circulation rating not in accordance with the facts as they were understood. No "favor" was ever granted a publisher in this Directory, and no threats or intimidations ever influenced the unruffled mind of the editor. It is a significant fact that most of the fault finders have become, in time, the best witnesses to the value of the Directory and its methods, and there is not much failure now on their part to prepare the necessary circulation statement for each volume, in which the said statement always appears correctly.

It is a fact that general advertisers should confine themselves, as a rule, to the newspapers having a circulation of not less than one thousand copies each issue, and as this fact has been evolved from the teachings of PRINTERS' INK, so it is obviously the duty of its publishers to furnish advertisers, through the American Newspaper Directory, with such an arrangement as will more readily enable them to select the mediums of this class. As an object lesson, to begin with, there is given a map of each State, showing every town in which is printed a newspaper credited with a circulation of at least one thousand copies, and for more complete instruction, in Part II., appears a recapitulation of all newspapers and periodicals belonging to this class. There are five thousand eight hundred and seven of them, leaving over sixteen thousand, each of which is believed to print less than one thousand copies each issue. A fair average for this sixteen thousand lot is five hundred copies per issue. No part of the Directory is of so much value to the advertiser as this "List of over 1,000 Circulation" in Part II. From it, at a glance, he can see that the largest daily circulation in Alabama is accorded to the Birmingham News; that the Little Rock Gazette leads in Arkansas; that the largest circulation in Georgia is held by the Atlanta Weekly Constitution, and so on.

The following table is arranged to show the aggregate number of these papers in each State and their combined circulation each issue. The Directory divides them into ten classes. The first class includes all whose actual circulation is given in figures exceeding the highest letter rating used, which is "A," and means "exceeding 75,000." The others are placed in that one of the nine remaining classes represented by the circulation letter rating to which they properly belong. But as each of these letter ratings indicates an issue exceeding the exact figure for which the letter stands, to arrive at a more accurate result ten per cent has been added in each case to the minimum number expressed by the letter rating thus:

A—Exceeding 75,000, plus 10 per cent, equals 82,500.

|                   | 5,807..... | 44,283,725 |

Since, then, 5,807 publications issue an average of 44,283,725 copies, and the remaining 16,000 (in round numbers) issue 8,000,000 copies, the total output of all publications is 52,283,725.

But the obvious deduction of interest to an advertiser, drawn from these statistics, is that by using less than thirty per cent of all the newspapers he will secure over eighty per cent of the entire circulation.

The 59 publications, each of which furnishes evidence by actual figures of a circulation above 75,000, give a combined issue of over 12,000,000 copies, or fifty per cent more than the 16,000 publications, each issue of which prints less than 1,000 copies.

The 199 publications of largest circulation give a combined issue of over 20,000,000—nearly one-half of that of the entire 5,807 of the class under consideration.

The further these facts are analyzed the more does it become evident that newspapers of large circulation are of first consideration to an advertiser.

FOR several years the editor of the American Newspaper Directory has found it advisable to use, among his circulation ratings, the letter X, its meaning, as explained by the key, being "In doubt." The same letter rating will be continued in future issues of the Directory, but the meaning will be further differentiated, as set forth below.

X.

A communication from this paper, in answer to an application for a revision or correction of the circulation rating accorded to it, brought out the information that the paper will not be satisfied with any rating the editor of the Directory would be justified in according. Instead of aiding the Directory to state the truth, the communication expressed greater readiness to institute libel suits and other unfriendly acts, or made a demand that the name of the paper should be omitted from the Directory, thus rendering the book imperfect. A paper to which this letter rating is applied is generally one that (in the opinion of the editor of the Directory) is likely to cost an advertiser more for a service it can render than would be required to obtain a similar benefit from some other publication.

THE PAST.

A CIVIL REQUEST TURNED DOWN WITH REGRET.

In conducting his revision of the American Newspaper Directory for 1898, the editor of that work recently mailed to the Valley Echo, at Westfield, Massachusetts, the following description of that paper, which had been cut from the Directory for December, 1897, and asked that errors, if any, should be corrected or pointed out :

VALLEY ECHO; Saturdays; independent; eight pages 15x22; subscription $1; established 1885; Home Newspaper Publishing Co., editors and publishers; print special editions for Huntington and Chester; combined circulation, largest ever accorded was 3,670 in 1892. Actual average during 1896, 2,502.

In answer the following was received:

HOME NEWSPAPER PUBLISHING CO.,
Publishers of
"THE VALLEY ECHO," Westfield, Mass.
"THE HUNTINGTON HERALD," Huntington, Mass.
"THE CHESTER CHRONICLE,"
Chester, Mass.
WESTFIELD, Mass., Dec. 15, 1897.)
Am. News. Directory, New York City:

GENTLEMEN—We return corrected sheet from your Directory, indicating one portion we very much wish dropped.

This is the third time we have asked for this correction, but no attention has been paid to it. Inasmuch as we furnished a sworn circulation statement, we must insist on this request being granted. Respectfully,

HOME NEWSPAPER PUB. CO.,
C. M. Gardner, Prest.

The matter to be omitted was :

Combined circulation, largest ever accorded was 3,070 in 1892.

The letter asking this omission was returned bearing the indorsement :

Please explain why you wished it dropped.
Please answer on this sheet.
NEW YORK, December 17, 1897.

In reply came the following :

For the same reason that you frequently issue a new Directory—to deal with the present and not the past. What an advertiser wants to know is, not the circulation a paper had in 1892, but what it has to-day. This we tell him in our sworn statement, and in view of having furnished you this we have a perfect right to ask that you omit the portion referred to.

Please accommodate us in this respect without the necessity of further correspondence. Respectfully,

HOME NEWSPAPER PUB. CO.,
Dec. 20, 1897. C. M. Gardner, President.

The editor of the Directory says that he was not able to comply with this request, because he does find that users of his book are interested in the past record of a paper, and believe that it has a value in indicating what its future will be.

There are a great many questions not very dissimilar to this one that come up in connection with the publication of a book like the American Newspaper Directory, and the publishers of the Directory have many times attempted to obtain conferences with newspaper associations and conventions for the purpose of discussing such points with representative men, but efforts in this direction have failed for the curious reason that what a publisher really wants to have done is so widely at variance from what he would wish to go on record as having advocated.

QUALITY IN PREFERENCE TO QUANTITY.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Dec. 16, 1897.

Editor American Newspaper Directory:

We have just received a copy of your December issue, and having occasion to refer to it in connection with certain publications on our list, we find to-day that two of these papers are omitted in your list of "Class Publications." One of them is the Street Railway Review, of Chicago; the other is Domestic Engineering, also of Chicago. Will you be kind enough to state to us why these papers are omitted, and also whether your book is intended to be complete in its classification?

NEW YORK, Dec. 17, 1897.

Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company:

The list of class publications in the American Newspaper Directory for 1897, December, contains the papers accorded a circulation rating of 1,000 or more. The Street Railway Review and Domestic Engineering, of Chicago, not being accorded a rating so high, do not appear in that list, but you will find the former described on page 165 and the latter on page 149 in the catalogue portion of the December Directory.

We remain, respectfully yours,

P. M. A.

A handsome periodical does not necessarily have a large issue. Sometimes it is found that the smaller the issue the easier it is to make it beautiful. There are some publications with small issues that are very much more profitable to the owners on that account than they would be if their subscription lists should be multiplied by ten. There is occasionally a great convenience in having only a small edition to deal with. Every copy of the papers referred to costs more to produce than the subscription price will remunerate the publishers for. A large edition is not therefore to be expected or hoped for. Advertisers value pretty papers more than great issues.

THERE is a certain class of newspapers that take great pleasure in teaching themselves to believe that the American Newspaper Directory is a scheme for blackmailing newspaper publishers, and one of the points that most of them seize upon is the rule laid down for the guidance of the editor of the Directory which reads as follows: "Publications that do not insert advertisements are so indicated and have no circulation rating."

"Are we to understand from the paragraph in your circular which we have marked," writes the Saginaw (Mich.) Evening News, "that you do not rate a newspaper in your newspaper annual unless that paper carries an advertisement in the columns of the annual?" Of course if the Saginaw Evening News ever looked at the Directory it would not need to ask this question.

The editor of the Directory desires to explain, not once for all, but simply once, and he expects to do it again next week, next month, next year and so on to the end of time. What he desires to explain is that the paragraph that attracts such unfavorable attention simply means what it says, namely that publications that do not insert advertisements in their own columns are so indicated in the American Newspaper Directory, and to such no circulation rating is accorded, because the paper does not receive advertisements and on that account its circulation, whether large or small, is of no interest to advertisers.

Messrs. GEO. P. ROWELL & Co.,
Publishers American Newspaper Directory,
10 Spruce Street, New York.

Gentlemen—The actual number of complete copies of the GRANITE STATE FREE PRESS, of Lebanon, N.H., printed and circulated for the year 1897 (spoiled and returned copies not counted) was 71,477. The circulation of each of the 53 issues of the year is shown by inclosure I make with this letter, giving the average for each week, by actual count, to be 1,348<sup>33</sup>/<sub>53</sub>.

This statement is made in good faith, for your information and use in your Directory.

It makes an honest publisher disgusted to hear the complaints from some quarters that accurate ratings can not be obtained in your Directory. I have never bought a cent's worth of your advertising space, yet you have always faithfully told my honest and truthful story of my circulation. It's the easiest thing imaginable to comply with your rules, and there is no excuse for any honest man failing to get proper rating save as he may decline to give substantial facts.

Respectfully,

Harry M. Cheney, Business Manager

The Inland Daily Press Association, at its next meeting, Nov. 9th, will discuss the subject of newspaper directories; are they beneficial to newspaper publications? If you can furnish me with any argument, data, etc., on this subject, I shall be obliged.

G. T. CAMPBELL.

NEW YORK, October 30, 1897.

Mr. G. T. Campbell, Managing Editor
"Evening Argus":

DEAR SIR—Your letter of October 28th is at hand. We believe that in any convention of newspaper publishers, where the subject of newspaper directories is discussed, they will arrive at the conclusion that newspaper directories are all bad, and that the newspaper directory that is most carefully edited is the worst. We do not see how they can arrive at any other conclusion, because poor papers are in the majority at every convention at the proportion of from nine, nineteen or twenty-nine to one, and the directories are bad for the poor paper, although valuable for advertisers and very valuable for the good papers. Dear Sir

I wish to add my testimony to that of many publishers, as to your absolute fairness and candor in the matter of circulation ratings. If a man does not want to lie about his circulation, he can find no fault with your methods.

Yours truly,

"I have recently read in 'Printers' Ink' and in the last volume of the American Newspaper Directory some discussion as to Mr. Rowell's fairness and justice in quoting circulations, being replies to criticisms by other publications. I am moved voluntarily to say that I have been a patron of the American Newspaper Directory for the past 25 years, from the time I was a publisher of a country weekly, later other publications, and for 10 years past the publisher of the Atlanta Journal. I can not recall one instance in which my publication was not fairly quoted. I always comply with requirements and always get the rating to which I am entitled."

COST OF ADVERTISING IN THE AMERICAN NEWSPAPER DIRECTORY

The American Newspaper Directory is published quarterly and appears in March, June, September and December. The price of the book is $5 for each quarterly issue or $20 a year. The books are delivered carriage paid to any point in North America.

Publishers' Announcements.

A publisher's announcement may have a place in the Directory in the column with and directly following the catalogue description of the paper, being set in type uniform with the letterpress, but preceded by the word advertisement. The charge for such an announcement is 50 cents a line for each issue or $2 a year. No announcement accepted for less than $1. An order amounting to $10 or more in any one issue of the Directory entitles the advertiser free copy of the Directory (price $5), delivered carriage paid. A free copy of one issue of the Directory will be sent in consideration of a yearly advertisement amounting to $10 or more for the year, provided the advertisement is paid for in advance—not otherwise.

Pictures of Buildings and Portraits.

Small pictures of newspaper buildings, or portraits of publishers, not exceeding an inch in length or breadth, may appear with the catalogue description of a paper if desired. The charge for the insertion of these pictures is $10 a year and such an order carries with it a right to one free copy of the Directory (price $5), carriage paid, if the amount of the order is paid in advance—not otherwise.

Displayed Advertisements.

A quarter-page display advertisement may have a place in letterpress portion of the Directory in a position on the same page with or opposite the description of the paper. The price for this space and position is $25 for each issue or $100 for the four issues appearing in a year: and the yearly advertiser is entitled to a free copy of each of the four issues of the Directory (price $5 each), to be delivered to him carriage paid. Half pages and full pages are charged at the same rate. Half pages $50, full pages $100, for each issue.

Discounts for Cash.

Five per cent may be deducted from prices named if copy of advertisement and check in full settlement accompany the order. Ten per cent may be deducted if payment in advance is sent for an entire year.

Orders amounting to less than $10 can not be accepted unless paid for in advance, because the trouble, delay, expense of bookkeeping, making drafts, conducting correspondence, etc., are so frequently greater than the small amount of the charge warrants or compensates.

Address orders to
